Local Department.

McCabe has a new addition to his family, a new Robt. Emmett colt.

Among those who have completed their new walks are S. T. Conway, and Jos. Kilburn.

The little narrow gauge engine has been sent away for repairs, and the "Lawrence" draws the trains again.

Hank McCabe sold the horse he got from Andrews for $75, thus realizing $225 for the horse he let Andrews have.

Elder Linderman has been visiting his many friends in Paw Paw. We were highly gratified to take him by the hand again.

Mrs. Elvira Hendricks has gone to Bedford, Ohio, whither she was summoned on account of the death of her sister's husband.

Will Snow and Chan Osoobock attended the State Convention of Firemen at Jackson, as delegates from the Paw Paw Fire Department.

Scott Wood is getting extravagant. He lives on onions at twenty-five cents a pound. It takes just two dollars worth to make him a square meal.

See the new "ad" of Duncombe, Stearns & Co. of the Model Store. They have always something new to say and something new to show their patrons.

THE NORTHERNER will always be pleased to have any of its friends communicate any item of interest to the public, either by mail or by a personal call at the office.

Miss Rhoby Herron, a pupil in our High School, has engaged to teach the school in District No. 8, Bloomingdale, at $5 per week. Very good wages for the first term.

We regret to announce the death of V. C. Smith, father of C. V. Smith, editor of the St. Jo. County Republican, who formerly resided here. Mr. Smith died at Jamestown, Dakota.

John Tuckey arrived home from St. Louis, Mo., on Thursday last. He came very unexpectedly—came, smashed fingers, caught between the wheels. He intends to return in a few weeks.

John Free took a little run over to Petoskey. He took his wife as far as Grand Rapids.

Rev. James Goodman will preach at Lawton at the Baptist Church, Sunday, May 7th, at 2:30 p. m.

A Lodge of Odd Fellows was instituted at Galesburg, Kalamazoo County, on Friday evening last.

Meeting of the Spiritualists and Liberalists of the county, at Longwell's Opera House, May 6th.

They had quite a heavy snow storm at Flint, on the morning of May 2d, and still they are not happy.

Three liquor dealers, Clifton House, Bennett and Harwick, have each paid taxes on their business for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Julia Freeman of this village is very ill. A council of physicians was called on Tuesday last. It is very doubtful if she recovers.

On Tuesday evening last Rev. G. P. Linderman had the pleasure of baptizing Miss Lena Erkenbeck, daughter of his old friends Mr. and Mrs. Martin Erkenbeck.

That is a neat office over Fred Bassett's jewelry store. It will be occupied by Dr. Schuyler Champion, Dentist. The Dr. expects to open his office next week.

We called at the insurance office of Beebe & Warner on Tuesday last, and judging by the number of new life insurance policies lying on their desk, they must be doing a good business in that line.

Under date of April 28th, the Globeville Advertiser says, "Jack Frost gives up the Ghost." On the morning of May 2d, ice was frozen nearly a quarter of an inch in thickness. Jack don't die so easily.

We understand that arrangements have been nearly perfected by which the Dyckman House will be opened within the next 30 days under a new management, with a new outfit throughout of furniture and fixtures.

We made a short visit at our school on Monday last, but we staid long enough to see that under the able management of Prof. Hitchcock and his efficient corps of assistants, the school is prospering most admirably.

Chas. L. Benjamin, of Illinois, is visiting O. W. Rowland, his brother-in-law. Mr. B. sang in the Christian church choir, and some of the girls were quite captivated. No use girls, he has been married, to! these many years.

Billy Tucker got sold last Monday. He came over to Paw Paw to try a law suit, and found that his client had settled it and paid the costs a week previously. He did not want us to mention the matter, so we keep still.

It is reported that peaches in the vicinity of Lawton, were nearly all killed by the severe freeze of Monday night. This, if true, will be a great loss to fruit growers. Mr. Engle, of this town, says his are not badly injured.

The Bangor Advocate says that Henry DeLong has a large spring crop of cradles for babies. Now let some Paw Paw man advertise a large spring crop of babies for cradles. We must not let Bangor get the start in this business.

Quite a number of the members of Paw Paw Lodge I. O. O. F., visited South Bend, Ind., on the occasion of the recent celebration of the 63d anniversary of the order. They all report a grand, good time, notwithstanding the bad weather.

Mr. John W. Free came into our office on Tuesday morning last with a small branch cut from an early variety of peach tree, which was well laden with blossoms. An examination showed that about one half of the fruit was killed by the severe frost of Monday night.

Kirk W. started for Geneva on the early morning train last Monday, or at least he intended to do so. He got up at half past four, and when he reached the depot, found the train had been gone half an hour. He thinks his wife put up a job on him and turned his clock back an hour.

We learn that on Monday Mr. Timothy Bishop, an esteemed citizen of South Haven, died very suddenly of apoplexy, falling dead while in the seeming enjoyment of perfect health. Mr. B. was one of the live men of South Haven and doing a large business in carriage making, and his death will be indeed a sad loss for our neighboring village.

A $2,000 life insurance in the A. O. U. W. for the past eight months, not including the local dues of $1 per year, has cost the members only $7.50, and for the year ending with May 1st, 1882, only $13.50. A life policy in the Mutual of N. Y., on same amount, at the age of thirty-five is $32.76. Dr. Dunning is examining Surgeon for the A. O. U. W.

The two lectures delivered by Col. Copeland at the Opera House on Monday and Tuesday evenings, were well liked. The Col. is certainly an entertaining speaker, and those who go to hear him are usually well satisfied.

Mr. Charles Blalorow has sold his full blood Norman stallion to John Robinson of Lawrence. The colt, a very fine one, will not be 3 years old until next September, and weighs 1200 lbs. Mr. Robinson will keep him on his farm for stock purposes. The sale was brought about by advertising in the NORTHERNER.

The regular covenant meeting of the First Baptist Church of this place, will be held on Saturday, May 6th, at 2:30 p. m. Preaching by the Pastor Sunday morning—subject, "The Soul's Thirst." The regular monthly temperance meeting will be held in the First Baptist Church. Rev. Mr. Harvey will deliver the address.

A special to the Detroit Free Press from South Haven, says the peach crop is badly injured in that region by the late frosts—early varieties nearly ruined, and the loss immense. A correspondent of the Post and Tribune, at Holland, says fully two-thirds of the peaches in that vicinity are destroyed, and other fruits badly injured.

The village authorities are continuing the good work of putting down cross-walks, and several of our citizens have replaced their old worn out walks with new ones, and many others have made arrangements to do so in the near future. Arrangements have been made for procuring the necessary plank for such purpose, so that all may be supplied.

Rev. C. O. Brown, of Kalamazoo, well known as the "boy bugler," has accepted an invitation to deliver the address in Paw Paw on decoration day.—Schoolcraft Dispatch and News.

This is news to the citizens of Paw Paw. We had never heard of it before. The Decatur Republican says Mr. Brown orates in Decatur on that occasion.

On Wednesday, April 26th, Prof. Upton, and some of the lady teachers of the Decatur Union School visited the Paw Paw school. Such visits are an excellent thing, and it would pay if school boards should allow teachers an occasional day to visit other schools, by which they might obtain as well as impart, new ideas in regard to their profession.

R. O. Beebe, Esq., has returned from his trip to New York where he had been for a couple of weeks. He went to Lockport on business connected with his mother's will. He says he found matters decidedly mixed. On his return, believing that "the longest way round is the surest way home," he took in N. Y. City, filled up with shad and other foreign luxuries.

Mrs. Brownbridge, of Decatur, was seriously injured on Monday by the bursting of an explosive cap, thrown by her into the fire after she had taken it with other rubbish from her husband's vest pocket. The explosion was terrific and burned her face terribly as well as mangled three of her fingers.—We understand that the explosive was part of an attachment to a cartridge used by Mr. B. to blow out stumps on his farm.

The following appointments have been made by the Township Board of Porter Township, viz:

Board of Review, Ezra S. Upham, Jacob C. Markle; Health Officer, H. J. Kellogg; Drain Com'r, David Beebe; Fruit Com'r, D. W. C. Lytle; Cemetery Committees, East Cemetery, Mr. & Mrs. Kern, Mr. & Mrs. R. V. Munger, Mr. & Mrs. Sam'l Bartlett; West Cemetery, Mr. & Mrs. Theodore Chamberlain, Mr. & Mrs. A. J. Weldin, Mr. & Mrs. J. W. Burlington, Mr. & Mrs. R. M. J. Hall.

At the last meeting of Broadhead Post, No. 31, G. A. R., eight new recruits were mustered. The Post now numbers sixty-two members and has a considerable number of applications outstanding. These comrades are earnestly requested to present themselves for muster at the next meeting of the Post to be held on May 11th. The boys are anxious to bring their numbers up to one hundred by the time of the soldiers re-union, on the 15th and 16th of June. Already they have outgrown their present quarters and are looking about for more room.

The residence of A. A. Johnson, in the southern part of Lawrence township was destroyed by fire, which originated in a defective chimney, Tuesday of last week. At the time of the fire there were three children in the house, the mother having gone on an errand to a neighbor. An alarm was given but too late for assistance, and everything burned but the clothing on one bed and a chair or two. The family were left almost destitute, but some of the kindhearted ladies of the neighborhood went to their relief and secured a handsome donation which greatly lightened their burdens. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson unite in expressing gratitude for the kindness shown them.—Decatur Republican.
